Statement of our reasons why we sought an extension:

Reason	Work involved, but not limited to
Finalise our work in respect of the Transactional Services Agreements (“TSA”) (EVCL One)	Collect final funds due from a customer, draw the outstanding realisations fees that have previously been approved, Allocate the appropriate level of management fee charges after the final Administrators fees relating to the TSA work have been paid.
Review the debtor ledger following formal reassignment, monitor collections and collect any realisable debtor balances due (EVCL One, EVCL Two and EVCL Three)	Reviewing and assessing the customers on the sales ledgers alongside the collection agent, monitoring cash collections, meeting with the collection agents to understand the status and progression of collections and review and take legal action where the potential outcome warrants.
Complete our work in respect of the EVCL truck cartel claim (EVCL Chill)	Continuing our review of the EVCL records held in respect of the claim, liaising with our lawyers and obtaining further information on the claim and formulating a strategy for pursuing it with the support of the secondary preferential creditor.
Respond to Employment Tribunal and employee related queries where required (all Companies)	Awaiting the conclusion and outcome of the Employment Tribunal matters and providing information as and when required as this is crucial to be finalised to enable a payment of dividend to the first ranking and secondary preferential creditors.
Make distributions to the first ranking and secondary ranking preferential creditors (where appropriate) (EVCL Chill, EVCL One and EVCL 2)	Corresponding with former employees regarding dividend and issuing preferential claim agreement forms, reviewing and adjudicating first ranking and secondary preferential creditor claims, calculating dividend rate and preparing and paying distribution to the secondary preferential creditor.
Collection of staged payment in relation to the sale of tax losses to the EV Cargo Group (EVCL Chill)	Final payment is anticipated to be received by the end of October 2021.
